A man in the east gave up all worldly concerns and went to a wood, where he built a hut and lived in it. His only clothing was a piece of cloth that he wore around his waist. But as ill-luck would have it, rats were plentiful in the wood; so, he had to keep a cat. The cat requires milk; so, he had to keep a cow. The cow required tending, so a cowboy was employed. The boy required a house to live in. So, a house was built for him. To look after the house a maid had to be engaged. To provide company for the maid a few more houses had to be made, and people invited to live in them. In this manner, a little township sprang up in the lovely wood.
